

Allison Norgaard

Office Manager/Ticketing Director

This will be Allison's ninth season as office manager and ticketing director for the Sioux Falls Storm.

She is originally from Hartford and graduated from the University of Sioux Falls with a Business Administration degree.

Her and her husband Matt have a daughter named Andi and a son named Raymond.

Things you may not know about Allison is that she has completed 1 full marathon and 3 half marathons. She loves to spend time with her family and travel. Her and her husband are the Harrisburg United Methodist Church's High School youth group leaders and enjoy spending time with the local HS kids and volunteering in their community.

