

John Prather

WR

18

Height: 6'1

Weight: 195

College: Carnegie Mellon University

Hometown: Olney, MD

Years Pro: 2

Professional (2018-present): John signed with the Sioux Falls Storm for 2019 season. He spent time with the B.C. Lions of the Canadian football League (CFL) during the 2018 season.

Senior (Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA, 2017): John saw action and started in all 11 games where he caught 63 passes for 1,032 yards and 11 touchdowns.

- He was an All-Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) First Team member.
- Prather earned All-Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) First Team honors.
- He was a All-University Athletic Association (UAA) First Team honoree.

Junior (Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA, 2016): John saw action and started in all 11 games where he scored seven touchdowns from receptions.

- He earned All-UAA Second Team honors.
- John was an All-PAC Second Team member.
- Prather set school records for single season receptions with 66 and single season receiving yards with 1,125.

Sophomore (Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA, 2015): John saw action in all 11 games, while starting in ten. He garnered 46 receptions for a total of 718 yards and seven touchdowns and recorded two tackles.

- Prather earned All-UAA Second Team honors.

Freshman (Carnegie Mellon University, Pittsburgh, PA, 2014): John saw action in all ten games, while starting in six. He tallied 19 receptions for 202 yards.

Personal: John majored in Civil Engineering.

