

Malcolm Goines

99

DL

Height: 6'3

Weight: 295

College: Austin Peay State University

Hometown: Chattanooga, TN

Years Pro: Rookie

Professional (2019-present): Malcolm signed with the Sioux Falls Storm for the 2019 season. He previously played for the Wichita Falls Nighthawks.

Junior-Senior (Austin Peay State University, Clarksville, TN, 2012-13): Malcolm appeared in two games in 2013, he had three tackles and a quarterback hurry. He started eight of 11 games in 2012 where he made 19 tackles, including 2.5 for a loss, and one fumble recovery.

Freshman-Sophomore (Grand Rapids Community College, Grand Rapids, MI): Malcolm finished the season with 16 tackles, nine tackles for loss and four sacks.

- Goines earned First-Team All-Conference and All-Region honors.

High School (Red Bank): Malcolm finished the season with 74 tackles and 24 tackles for loss.

- Goines earned All-Region as senior and was a 2009 preseason All-State selection.
- He played in the 2010 East-West All-Star game.

Personal: Malcolm is the son of Bobby and Mary Goines and has a brother named Trey Suttles. He was a communication arts: information specialist major with health minor.

