

Claude Davis

DL

Height: 6'3

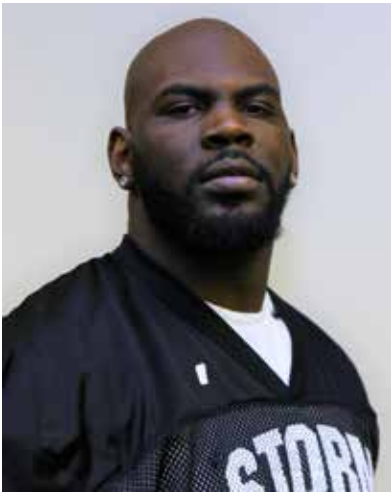

Weight: 255

College: University of South Florida

Birthday: June 14, 1989

Hometown: Lakeland, FL

Years Pro: 6

Professional (2013-present): Claude was signed to the New York Jets in 2013 as a reserve player. After a short stay with the Jets, he moved to Florida to play with the Arena Football League's (AFL) Tampa Bay Storm. Davis later became a part of Indoor Football League (IFL) with the Nebraska Danger. After his release, Claude signed with the Billings Wolves. After two days with Billings, Davis was traded to the Sioux Falls Storm during the 2015 season.

- Claude was named to the All-IFL Second-Team Defense roster in 2016, 2017 and 2019.

Junior-Senior (University of South Florida, Tampa, FL, 2010-2011): During Davis' senior season, he accumulated 16 tackles, six sacks, two forced fumbles and one pass deflection.

Freshman-Sophomore (East Mississippi Community College, Scooba, MS, 2008-2009): While attending East Mississippi Community College, Claude was a two-year letterman.

- He was named to the 2009 Mississippi Association of Community & Junior Colleges All-North State First Team.
- Davis was also selected to the 2009 National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Preseason All-American First Team.
- Claude was a 2008 Mississippi Association of Community and Junior Colleges (MACJC) All-North State Second Team selection.

High School (Lake Gibson, Lakeland, FL): Davis was a two-year letterman. Claude played in the North vs. South All-Star Game.

- He earned First-Team All-State honors during his senior season.

Personal: Claude is the son of Arnita and Micheal Brown, Sr. He has two sisters and three brothers: Kamesha, Tiffany, Marquise, Miquane and Mikeem. Davis is the father of three daughters: Naomi, Claudia and Natalie. He and his wife, Tara, currently reside in Sioux Falls. Claude received an Associate's degree in liberal arts and a Bachelor's degree in mass communication.

